The Spirit of Community

On May 16, 2018, Grover Beach Community Library hosted its annual Community Appreciation Day. This event is an opportunity for members of the community to connect and enjoy a festive afternoon celebrating our shared connections through the library.

This year's celebration was especially sweet as we honored our Mary Lee Clark Award recipient, Bernice Flood. Bernice, or Bernie to her friends, has been an active supporter of the library since its founding days. In the nearly 60 years she has lived on the Central Coast, Bernie has always given back generously to the community. She spent her professional career as a nurse, working both in hospitals and in the Home Health Agency of SLO County before retiring. Even now in her eighth decade, Bernie serves as a board member for the Clark Center Foundation and is active with many volunteer organizations.

Bernie's impact was evident at the library event, where she was joined not only by her loving children and grandchildren, but also by several sorority sisters, who came to celebrate Bernie's kind and giving spirit. The library is honored to have Bernie as a cheerleader, supporter, and generous benefactor. She truly embodies the spirit of community that we strive to create. Congratulations once again to Bernice Flood, our 2018 Mary Lee Clark Award recipient.

Join the Community!

As an all-volunteer community library, we're always looking to connect with you, our patrons and Friends of the Library! There are several ways you can support the library and help us get the word out about our free programs and services. Follow us on Facebook and Instagram: @groverbeachlibrary and share events and photos.

Visit us at groverbeachlibrary.org where you'll find our Books by the Beach Blog with thoughtful book reviews and recommendations. You can even sign up to receive updates about book sales and our latest programs by email. Simply type eepurl.com/dyQSNv into your web browser and follow the instructions.

If you want to take a more active role, come volunteer with us! We're currently accepting volunteers as librarians, book sale helpers, and for our "book crew" — those who repair books and get them ready to shelve. If you'd like to lend a hand and enjoy the community and camaraderie of our local library, call our volunteer coordinator, Sindy, at (805) 473-1941.

Year-Round Book Sales

Our Saturday book sales three times a year are always a fun way to see familiar faces and meet new friends. In addition to these, the library has also started an "on-going" book sale. Stop by the shelf in the main room and grab a new read. Your purchase helps to support the library and fund free community programs and the purchase of new books.
